I. Read and answer.

Hello! My name is Tasnim. Today, the weather is very nice.

In the morning, it is cold and rainy. I think it is colder than yesterday. I wear my warm jacket because the wind is stronger than usual.

At school, my friend Dorsa says, "I like sunny days more than rainy days." I agree. The sun is brighter than the clouds. The playground is drier than the park yesterday.

My brother loves windy days. He says windy days are cooler than hot days. But I think windy days are noisier because the leaves fall everywhere.

In the evening, the sky is clear. It is brighter than the morning. I like it when the weather changes. It is always exciting to see which day is better.

1. What is the weather like in the morning?

_____

2. Is today colder or warmer than yesterday?

_____

3. Who likes sunny days more, Tasnim or Dorsa?

_____

4. Why are windy days noisier than hot days?

_____

J. Read and think. Then answer.

Feelings are like the different colors of our heart. They can make us feel happy, excited, sad, or even angry. Sometimes, our feelings can be really strong. Sometimes they can be nice. Our feelings help us understand ourselves and the people around us better. It's important to know and talk about our feelings because it helps us grow.

1. Why is important to talk about our feelings?

2. What can feelings make us feel?
